

Dhanaji Nana Chaudhari Vidya Prabodhini's
Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work, Jalgaon

Program Specific Outcomes- BSW (Under Graduation) and MSW (Post Graduation)

On Completion of the B.S.W./ M.S.W. students are able to __

- Understand the concepts, scope and importance, and principles of social work
- Understand various fields of social work i.e. community development, labour welfare, personnel management & industrial relations, human resource management, family and child welfare, medical and psychiatric social work, tribal welfare etc.
- Learn about methods of social work: Casework, Group work, Community Organization, Social action, Social work research, social welfare administration
- Understand social problems/ issues and disorganization in society through Field work and research dissertation.
- Learn about research methodology in social work.
- Understand in detail about major social institutions, new policies and trends of social change
- Understand in detail about gender and society, social movement and social welfare in India
- Developed professional ethics and skills code of code of conduct behavior with client.
- The students give chance developed the various skills in order developed their understanding relate theory practice and for their professional development
- Students have demonstrated the ability to practice according to the value base of the profession and its ethical standards and principles

Aspirants who want to undertake BSW/ MSW course need to be well aware of the social problems of the area wherein they work and also possess good communication skills. Some other key skills that an aspirant should possess when thinking of pursuing a BSW/ MSW course are listed below:

Empathy	Good listener
Good communication skills	Emotional intelligence
Social perceptiveness	Tolerance
Critical thinking	Ability to coordinate
Self-awareness	Ability to set boundaries
Integrity	Persuasion

Dhanaji Nana Chaudhari Vidya Prabodhini's
Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work, Jalgaon

Program outcomes- BSW (Under Graduation)

- To build a foundation in Social Work among the undergraduate students. This will be developed further, when they choose to do an MSW programme.
- To sensitize the student community on all the social issues prevailing in the society.
- Students have demonstrated theoretical knowledge supported by empirical evidence for understanding behavior across the life span of multiple client systems and their interactions.
- Students have demonstrated the knowledge, values, and skills to be critical consumers of research for effective practice and to possess basic skills to evaluate their practice.
- To offer theoretical and practical knowledge on subjects relevant to nation development, such as Economic and Political system, Social Responsibility and good governance, Human rights and Social legislation.
- To inculcate social values among the students, so that they become the change agents for the betterment of the society.
- To develop leadership skills in the students by means of organizing camps and programmes, so that they become the future leaders of the nation.
- To make the students culture sensitive to the social change that is happening and be aware of upholding the societal culture.
- To inspire the students to participate in social activities. This will promote them to involve in citizen participation.
- Students have applied critical thinking skills within the context of professional social work practice.
- Students have demonstrated the ability to effectively use supervision and consultation appropriate to social work practice.
- To motivate the students in micro level and macro level social work practice in Government and Non-Government organizations.
- To mould the students into active social workers by integrating theory to practice.
- To safeguard the Social work profession by upholding the ethical principles religiously.

Dhanaji Nana Chaudhari Vidya Prabodhini's
Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work, Jalgaon

Programme Outcome for MSW

- The humanistic orientation provides the learner with satisfying experiences, so that there is personal growth, integrity and autonomy.
- Enhance capacity to identify the goals of the profession, relate strategies to these goals, and develop awareness of one's' role as a change agent.
- To foster scientific knowledge about the dynamics of problems and issues in our society.
- To promote necessary skills of awareness, skills aiming at empowerment of people and skills in culture-sensitive methods of social change.
- Develop critical understanding and application of approaches suggesting holistic conceptual frame work for Social Work practice.
- Understand and uphold professional values and ethics.
- To provide training in applying skills in social work practice and social work research in different fields for achieving desirable changes and development.
- To foster attitudes and values necessary for working with people and organizations, both governmental and non-governmental for achieving the goals of social work profession namely
  - i) To enhance people's capacity for social functioning
  - ii) To improve the quality of life for everyone focusing on sustainable development
  - iii) To promote social justice, gender justice and equity
  - iv) Provide opportunities for people to develop their capacities to become participating and contributing citizens.
  - v) To initiate and support action for social responsibility, redistribution of resources, facilitation of problem solving and conflict resolution
- To bring about a substantial change in the labour market and develop new approaches to the whole of Human Resources Management field.