Non-Government Scholarship Policy Document

1. Introduction

Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work is dedicated to fostering academic excellence, extracurricular achievements, and financial support for its students. The college offers various non-government scholarships to recognize and encourage students' accomplishments in academics, sports, and cultural activities. This policy document outlines the guidelines and procedures for awarding these scholarships, each of which plays a significant role in supporting students' holistic development.

2. Scholarship Categories

The Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work offers the following categories of non-government scholarships:

2.1 Late. Mankarnika Rambhau Chaudhari Memorable Scholarship

This scholarship is awarded to students who achieve the 1st rank in university examinations for B.S.W. III year and M.S.W. II year. The scholarship provides 251 Rupees for B.S.W. III year and 501 Rupees for M.S.W. II year.

2.2 Mr. Shirish Madhukarrao Chaudhari Scholarship

Unlike the Late. Mankarnika Rambhau Chaudhari Scholarship, this scholarship supports students who secure the first, second, and third positions in the final year of their B.S.W. and M.S.W. examinations. The award is unique in that it grants the interest generated from a capital amount of 5000 Rupees.

2.3 Scholarships for University-Level Sports

- Late. R.H. Mahajan Memorable Prize: Awarded to students who actively participate in university-level sports, providing a financial award of 251 Rupees.
- Late. P.J. Rade Memorable Prize: Awarded to students who participate in university-level sports, with a financial award of 251 Rupees.
- Late. M.D. Khadake Memorable Prize: Designed for students who excel in university-level sports, providing an award of 501 Rupees.

3. Eligibility Criteria

3.1 Late. Mankarnika Rambhau Chaudhari Memorable Scholarship

Eligibility:

- Students must achieve the 1st rank in university examinations for B.S.W. III year or M.S.W. II year.
