Report on BSW Final Research Presentation (2018-19)

College Name: Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work

Program Name: BSW Final Research Presentation (2018-19)

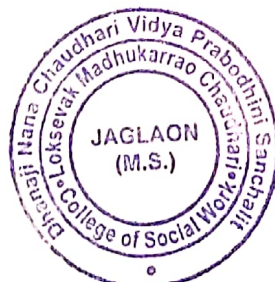

Objective: The BSW Final Research Presentation for the academic year 2018-19 aimed to provide a platform for students to present the outcomes of their research projects. This event marked the culmination of their research work, allowing them to showcase their findings and contributions to the field of social work.

Participants: A total of 37 participants, who had successfully completed their research projects, presented their work during this event. These students had undergone research orientation and research proposal development as part of their academic journey.

Date: The BSW Final Research Presentation took place on March 1, 2019.

Program Details:

- 1. Research Presentations: Participants presented the results of their research projects, covering topics that were relevant to the field of social work. Each presentation included an introduction, methodology, key findings, and implications of the research.
- 2. Q&A Sessions: After each presentation, there were question-and-answer sessions where the audience and a panel of experts could ask questions and seek clarification on the research findings and methodology.
- 3. Peer Review: Participants and attendees engaged in peer review activities, providing feedback and constructive criticism to presenters. This encouraged an atmosphere of learning and continuous improvement.
- 4. Recognition and Awards: Outstanding research projects and presentations were recognized and awarded during the event. This acknowledgment served as motivation for the students and highlighted the best practices in research.

Outcomes:

The BSW Final Research Presentation (2018-19) resulted in several significant outcomes:

1. Dissemination of Research Findings: Participants effectively communicated the results of their research projects to a wider audience, contributing to the dissemination of knowledge and insights in the field of social work.
2. Knowledge Exchange: The Q&A sessions and peer review activities facilitated knowledge exchange and constructive feedback, allowing students to refine their research and presentation skills.
3. Recognition of Excellence: Outstanding research projects were recognized and awarded, motivating students to excel in their academic and research endeavors.
4. Professional Development: Participants gained valuable experience in presenting their research, an essential skill for their future careers in social work.

Conclusion:

The BSW Final Research Presentation (2018-19) marked the successful conclusion of the students' research projects and their academic journey in social work. It provided a platform for the dissemination of research findings, peer learning, and recognition of excellence. We are proud of our students' achievements and are committed to continuing our support for their academic and research endeavors. We look forward to more such events in the future, nurturing the next generation of social work professionals.
