Ref. No. Report on BSW Research Outline Presentation (2022-23) Date : / / 202

College Name: Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work

Program Name: BSW Research Outline Presentation (2022-23)

Objective: The BSW Research Outline Presentation for the academic year 2022-23 aimed to provide participating students with the opportunity to present their research proposals and receive feedback. This program encouraged students to develop their research topics and outlines, setting the stage for their future research projects.

Participants: A total of 30 participants attended the program. These students were actively involved in the research orientation program held in August 2022, and this presentation event allowed them to showcase their progress.

Date: The BSW Research Outline Presentation took place over four days, from October 14 to October 17, 2022.

Program Details:

- 1. Research Proposal Presentations: Participants were given the opportunity to present their research proposals to their peers and a panel of experienced researchers and professors. Each presentation included an overview of the research topic, research questions, methodology, and expected outcomes.
- 2. Feedback Sessions: Following each presentation, there were feedback sessions where participants received constructive feedback and suggestions for improving their research outlines. This interactive process aimed to help students refine their research ideas.
- 3. Group Discussions: Group discussions and breakout sessions were organized to encourage peer-to-peer feedback and collaboration among participants. These sessions facilitated the sharing of ideas and best practices in research proposal development.
- 4. Panel of Experts: The panel of experienced researchers and professors provided valuable insights and guidance to the students. Their expertise added depth and quality to the feedback provided.

Ref. No. Outcomes:

Date : / / 202

The BSW Research Outline Presentation for the academic year 2022-23 yielded several meaningful outcomes:

- 1. Research Proposal Development: Participants had the opportunity to refine and improve their research proposals. This process was instrumental in developing clear and well-structured research outlines.
- 2. Peer Learning and Collaboration: Group discussions and peer feedback sessions promoted a culture of collaboration and knowledge sharing among the participants, enhancing the overall quality of research proposals.
- 3. Expert Guidance: The input from the panel of experts significantly contributed to the development of research proposals, ensuring that they were grounded in sound research principles.

Conclusion:

The BSW Research Outline Presentation (2022-23) was a valuable platform for students to showcase their research ideas and receive feedback from peers and experts. This event played a crucial role in refining research proposals and setting the stage for their future research projects.
