Report for MSW Research Outline Presentation (2019-20)

College Name: Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work

Objective: The MSW Research Outline Presentation event for the academic year 2019-20 aimed to provide MSW students with a platform to present and discuss their research proposals. This event encouraged students to refine their research ideas, receive feedback, and gain experience in academic presentations.

Participants: A total of 83 MSW students enthusiastically participated in the Research Outline Presentation, demonstrating their strong interest in the research process and their dedication to furthering their research skills.

Date: The MSW Research Outline Presentation event spanned three days, from September 23 to 25, 2019.

Program Details:

- 1. Presentation Sessions: The core of the event was the presentation sessions, where each participant had the opportunity to present their research proposal outlines. These sessions were categorized into thematic panels, allowing students to discuss their research in smaller groups.
- 2. Faculty and Peer Feedback: After each presentation, faculty members and peers provided constructive feedback to the presenters. This feedback was instrumental in helping students refine their research questions and methodologies.
- 3. Panel Discussions: The event featured panel discussions to explore common themes and challenges in the research proposals. These sessions encouraged participants to engage in critical discussions and share insights and best practices.
- 4. Networking Opportunities: The event provided informal networking opportunities, allowing students to interact, exchange ideas, and potentially form research collaborations with their peers.

Outcomes:

The MSW Research Outline Presentation event for the academic year 2019-20 achieved several notable outcomes:

1. Research Refinement: Participants had the opportunity to refine their research proposals based on feedback from both faculty and peers. This process strengthened the quality and depth of their research projects.
2. Improved Presentation Skills: Students developed and honed their presentation skills, which are essential for effectively communicating research findings and ideas.
3. Collaborative Research: The event facilitated the exchange of ideas and the formation of potential research partnerships among participants, promoting a culture of collaboration.
4. Confidence Building: Presenting in a formal academic setting boosted students' confidence in their research abilities and public speaking skills.

Conclusion:

The MSW Research Outline Presentation event for the academic year 2019-20 successfully met its objectives by providing a valuable platform for MSW students to present and refine their research proposals. The event not only enhanced their research skills but also instilled in them the confidence to pursue responsible and competent research. The institution remains committed to offering opportunities for students to further develop their research capabilities and to foster a culture of ethical and collaborative research among MSW students.
