MSW Final Research Presentation (2018-19):

Objective: The MSW Final Research Presentation event for the academic year 2018-19 marked the culmination of the research journey for MSW students. It aimed to provide students with a platform to present and share the results of their research projects, showcasing their research skills and contributions to the field of social work.

Participants: A total of 89 MSW students participated in the Final Research Presentation, reflecting their commitment to conducting meaningful research in the field of social work.

Date: The MSW Final Research Presentation event took place over two days, on March 28 and 29, 2019.

Program Details:

- 1. Research Presentations: The central focus of the event was the research presentations, where each participant had the opportunity to present their research findings, methodology, and conclusions. These presentations were organized into thematic panels to facilitate discussions and feedback.
- 2. Faculty and Peer Evaluation: After each presentation, faculty members and peers provided comprehensive feedback and evaluation of the research projects. This feedback served to acknowledge the quality of the research and offer suggestions for future improvements.
- 3. Panel Discussions: The event included panel discussions featuring experts in social work and related fields. These discussions allowed for in-depth exploration of themes and challenges in the presented research projects, fostering a deeper understanding of the subject matter.
- 4. Networking and Collaboration: Informal networking sessions provided participants with opportunities to connect, exchange ideas, and explore potential collaborative efforts with peers and experts in the field.
