Report for Ph.D. Research Outline Presentation

Organized by: Research and Development Cell of Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work

Objective: The Ph.D. Research Outline Presentation event, organized by the Research and Development Cell of Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work, took place on June 22 to 23, 2021. The event aimed to provide a platform for Ph.D. students to present and discuss their research proposals. The primary objective was to assist students in refining their research ideas, obtaining constructive feedback, and gaining experience in academic presentations.

Number of Participants: A total of 13 Ph.D. students actively participated in the Research Outline Presentation, reflecting their strong interest in advancing their research projects.

Date: The Ph.D. Research Outline Presentation event was conducted on June 22 to 23, 2021.

Program Details:

- 1. Presentation Sessions: The core of the event centered on presentation sessions, where each participant had the opportunity to present their research proposal outlines. These sessions were organized into thematic panels to facilitate discussions and feedback.
- 2. Faculty and Peer Feedback: Following each presentation, both faculty members and peers provided constructive feedback to the presenters. This feedback served to acknowledge the quality of the research and offered suggestions for future enhancements.
- 3. Panel Discussions: The event featured panel discussions featuring experts in the respective research fields. These discussions enabled in-depth exploration of themes and challenges in the presented research proposals, fostering a deeper understanding of the subject matter.
- 4. Networking Opportunities: The event provided informal networking opportunities, enabling students to interact, exchange ideas, and explore potential collaborative efforts with their peers and experts.

Outcomes:

The Ph.D. Research Outline Presentation event achieved several notable outcomes:

1. Research Refinement: Participants had the opportunity to refine their research proposals based on feedback from both faculty and peers, improving the quality and depth of their research projects.
2. Enhanced Presentation Skills: Students developed and honed their presentation skills, which are essential for effectively communicating research findings and ideas.
3. Collaborative Research: The event facilitated the exchange of ideas and the formation of potential research partnerships among participants, promoting a culture of collaboration.
4. Confidence Building: Presenting in a formal academic setting increased students' confidence in their research abilities and public speaking skills.

Conclusion:

The Ph.D. Research Outline Presentation event, organized by the Research and Development Cell of Loksevak Madhukarrao Chaudhari College of Social Work, for the academic year 2021, provided an invaluable platform for Ph.D. students to present and refine their research proposals. This event not only enhanced their research skills but also instilled in them the confidence to pursue responsible and competent research. The institution remains dedicated to offering opportunities for students to further develop their research capabilities and to foster a culture of ethical and collaborative research in their respective fields.
